

GOOD SITE FOR UTAH BUILDING

Governor Is Pleased With Arrangements in Seattle and Lets Contract.

TO BE COMPLETED MAY 25
VISIT OF CADETS TO BE A STRONG CARD.

Governor William Spry and C. P. Overfield, chairman and secretary of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific commission from Utah, returned yesterday after a ten days' trip to the exposition grounds in Seattle. While in Seattle the commissioners selected the site and let the contract for the erection of the Utah building at the exhibition. They also selected Aug. 25, 26 and 27 as Utah days at the fair and arranged for the visit of the high school cadets and the Tabernacle choir to the fair at that time.

Arrangements are being made in Salt Lake to provide for the transportation of the cadets and the choir to the fair on those days, and it is probable that both organizations will be at the fair. The reputation acquired by the cadets on their trip to San Francisco a year ago has procured the cadets to Seattle. Governor Spry says, and the people of that city are very eager for the privilege of watching the maneuvers of the well-drilled young soldiers. The Utah days were originally scheduled for September, but this plan would necessitate their absence from school and, at the suggestion of Governor Spry, the dates were changed to come at a time that would not interfere with their studies.

The presence of the Tabernacle choir was also urged by those in charge of the exposition. The change of the Utah days at the fair will give the Tabernacle choir the opportunity to enter into the Elstorf, to be held at the exposition on Aug. 26 and 27.

Governor Is Pleased.

Governor Spry, on his return from Seattle yesterday, said:

"While we were disappointed in finding that the two sites originally selected for us to choose between had been taken by other states, we were extremely fortunate in securing an excellent site for the Utah building. The officials in charge of the fair were very good to us, and secured us a site on which the foundation for another building had already been built."

"The Utah building will be directly opposite the California and New York buildings, and within a stone's throw of the Idaho building. We let the contract for the construction of the building to the parties who constructed the New York building. The building will be completed by May 25, so that the exhibits may be in place when the fair opens on June 1. The building will be a representation of an Indian dwelling, and will be constructed after the plans drawn by Ware & Traganza of this city."

"The exposition promises to be a successful one. The people of Seattle are working hard preparing for the completion of the grounds and the opening of the fair. The commission in charge of the exposition has things in excellent shape, and the fair will begin on time. We had a delightful trip, and were treated splendidly by the people of Seattle, and especially so by those in charge of the exposition. They were all desirous for a representation of Utah at the fair, and are assisting us in every way possible to make an excellent showing. They are particularly anxious to have the Salt Lake High school cadets and the Tabernacle choir at the exposition on Utah days, Aug. 25, 26 and 27."

Overcomes Loss of Nervous Force in Men and Women

Men and women who are nervous, weak, who lack energy and ambition, who suffer with nervousness, dread, anxiety and a general inability to be happy, or to act naturally and rationally at all times, may try this treatment with a certainty of astonishing results.

The ingredients can be obtained separately at all well stocked drug stores.

At any leading drug store get three ounces syrup of Scilla and in a half-pint bottle. Get one ounce each of the following in separate packages: Compound fluid balnearium, compound pueraria, and tincture cadomene compound (not cadomene). Add balnearium to scilla; let stand two hours, then add other two, shake well and take a teaspoonful after each meal and one at retiring.

And the greatest shoe sale Salt Lake ever witnessed will be a matter of history.

The next few days will be devoted to clearing out odd lines—lines that have been broken during the great sale—sizes sold out—must finish 'em quick, even at a fraction of the actual values.

ORPHEUM DEAL IS CONCLUDED

Ogden Will Be on the Circuit
Commencing Aug. 1—
Officers Elected.

After Aug. 1 Ogden will be on the regular Orpheum circuit and in this way will be in touch with the most progressive cities of the west. Martin Beck, the Orpheum king, with J. Howard Garrett, his Salt Lake representative, and Stephen L. Richards, his attorney, were in Ogden yesterday. They held a conference with David Eccles, Judge H. H. Rolapp, William Sowercroft and the others most deeply interested in the enterprise here, and as a result of the conference it was announced last night that the Orpheum was agreed for this city beginning with the opening of the next amusement season.

Today articles of incorporation will be filed with the county clerk for the Orpheum Amusement company, with a capitalization of $50,000. The officers decided upon are: William Sowercroft, president; D. C. Eccles, vice president; John Pingree, treasurer; and J. L. Garrett, secretary. These will be the same as in all other cities on the Orpheum circuit. The board of directors, all of the stock has been taken here and the other half by Beck and those associated with him.

Mr. Beck departed on the Overland Limited last evening for San Francisco to be present at the opening of his new house there. He will return to Ogden next Wednesday, when all of the details of the Orpheum enterprise will be worked out. The Orpheum in this city will be open seven nights a week, in matinees each week. The attractions presented will be identical with those given in Salt Lake. The prices will be the same as in all other cities on the Orpheum circuit. The night prices will be 75, 50, 25 and 10 cents. The matinee prices will be 50, 25, 10 and 5 cents.

Nothing definite would be given out last night as to the house secured, but it is understood to be the Grand, which has a seating capacity of 1,500. It is also understood that $30,000 is to be expended in the fitting up of the new Orpheum, making it a much more attractive place of amusement than Ogden has ever yet had.

RAILROAD MAY GET ITS WATER CHEAP AT OGDEN

Union Pacific Offer Is $5,000 a Year
for About 100,000,000 Gallons—Deal Pending.

Chances favor the selling by Ogden City to the Union Pacific 100,000,000 gallons of water per year for the next five years at a rate that means $5,000 a year. This was the proposition of the Union Pacific officials, headed by Superintendent A. A. Whitney and Attorney Parley L. Williams. His acceptance will be recommended by the special waterworks committee to the city council next Monday.

The legal point as to whether the city might make such a contract was looked into by Parley L. Williams for the city and by Attorney J. H. Devine for the city. Nothing was found in the constitution of the state to prohibit it and it is taken for granted that it may be done.

This is regarded as a profitable deal for the city, as the $5,000 a year will practically maintain the waterworks department. The water, most of it, is required by the Union Pacific in the winter time, when the springs in Taylor canyon are frozen up and the supply cut off. In the meantime the city will make a hustle to develop an additional supply for emergencies.

One of the most valuable features of the deal is considered to be the perfect guarantee that will be established between the city and the railroad company. It is now thought that the matter will be disposed of at the next meeting of the council.

This event is expected to call out a large crowd of high school rosters, young and old.

District Attorney N. J. Harris announced that he will file an information this morning against Nicholas Vacos charging him with murder in the first degree. The arraignment, he thinks, will take place Friday morning. There seems to be a disposition to lose no time in the prosecution of this case.

The stock of the Vineyard Ranch company has been increased to $1,500,000 for the purpose, it is said, of developing water for power and irrigation on the property. Most of the stockholders of this company live in Ogden headed by road company and by City Attorney J. H. Devine for the city. Nothing was found in the constitution of the state to prohibit it and it is taken for granted that it may be done.

Mayor A. L. Brewer has issued a call for a mass meeting of citizens of Ogden to be held in the city hall on Tuesday evening, April 20, to perfect arrangements for the entertainment of those attending the C. A. R. encampment in August. This call is in line with recommendations of the executive committee at its last meeting.

Suit was filed in the district court yesterday by the Pioneer Land & Irrigation company against Edwin T. Woolley, charging that Dec. 17, 1908, Woolley transferred to the plaintiff 1,000 shares of stock of the Superior Brick, Tile & Milling company, setting forth that the company was in prosperous condition and the stock valuable. In exchange for the stock Woolley received a 40-horse-power boiler and a 30-horse-power steam engine. Later he developed that his stock was worthless and the suit is brought for $500.

They have been acquainted for many years and Mr. Barron stated last evening that he stood ready to do anything in his power for Malone, former pool champion of the world.

Inability to locate all of the officials necessary to secure the release of Malone is given as the reason for his detention, but it is understood he will be allowed to leave the city jail today.

INSURANCE NEXT TO HIS JOB

New Insurance Commissioner
Is Considering Status of Certain Companies.

NEW CODE NOW IN EFFECT

DOUBTFUL CONCERNS MAY BE GIVEN UNTIL JUNE.

Colonel George B. Squires, commissioner of insurance, has asked Attorney General Albert R. Barnes for an opinion with reference to the effectiveness of the section of the new insurance code which provides for the qualifications of joint stock fire insurance companies operating within the state. The insurance code, as it passed the legislature, became effective on approval. This being true, a strict construction of the law would mean that all companies not coming up to the requirements of the insurance code must immediately cease to operate within the state. Concerning several of these companies there is some question as to whether or not they are now within the requirements of the law.

One section of the new code provides that no joint stock fire insurance company with territory not limited to Utah shall be permitted to do any business in the state unless it has a capital of not less than $200,000, and a surplus over all liabilities of $100,000. According to the reports of 1908, there were five joint stock fire insurance companies the capital and surplus of which was less than that required by the new law.

The question is whether the commissions should cut off these companies from business within the state immediately or whether time should be granted to permit them to come up to the requirements of the law. The commission's statement of the required capital, according to its last report, and this deficiency may have been remedied since that time.

May Operate Until June.

Colonel Squires said yesterday that there was a disposition to permit these companies to operate until June, when the annual statements of the companies would show the exact condition of the business.

The $300,000 capital and surplus for joint stock fire insurance companies is a portion of the requirements fixed by the new law for such companies. For companies whose business is limited to Utah a minimum capital and surplus of $100,000 is fixed by the new law.

For mutual or mutual assessment fire insurance companies with territory not limited to Utah the minimum amount of capital and surplus is $100,000, and for those limited to Utah cash assets, above all liabilities, $25,000.

The minimum amounts of capital and surplus fixed by the new law are points of view and collection, and an immediate enforcement would probably close the business of at least five companies in the state. Some of the companies will probably be unable to comply with the new law, but others not now within the law are preparing to increase the amount of capital and surplus in order to fulfill the requirements.

Until the attorney general makes a ruling in the matter all of the insurance companies in operation at the time the law went into effect will be permitted to continue to do business. Copies of the insurance code of the state, as embodied in the Burton act, and of the county insurance law, also passed at the last session of the legislature, have been printed and are now ready for distribution.

ASKS FOR ELEVEN THOUSAND

Trustees of Westminster College
Need This Amount to Complete Improvements.

The present monetary needs of the trustees of Westminster college are $10,000, with which to complete the women's building and to pay the current expenses. The two buildings erected on the twenty-acre site of Westminster college at Thirteenth and Eleventh streets are to be forerunners of greater things to come. The beautiful campus was donated by Colonel W. M. Perry of Salt Lake City, and the main building was erected by the contributions of western people, and so far only $2,000 of Salt Lake money has been received. The college is now in the new residence hall for young women, which is not yet completed.

The college is possessed of $112,000 worth of property, none of which has been given by Salt Lake people. Sixty-five thousand dollars has been expended in this city during the last two years while only $2,000 has been given by the people of this city in three years, that amount being for current expenses. The largest gift of any one time from this city has been $10,000 though one gentleman offered to give $500 providing nine other citizens of Salt Lake could do likewise, but they could not be found.

CAUGHT STEALING COAL.

Colored Man Captured After Battle With Watchman.

Edward Taylor, a colored man, 26 years of age, was arrested in the Denver & Rio Grande yards early last evening by Special Watchman Charles Nutter, after a lively battle in which Taylor attempted to draw a gun and was only prevented from doing so by Nutter's striking him a heavy blow on the temple with a watchman's torch. Taylor was removed to the police station and charged with stealing coal and carrying concealed weapons.

While being searched at headquarters Taylor was found to have a purse containing $13 in his pocket, and when asked how he stole coal with such ready funds in his pocket to keep him several days, said:

"David Assab, Ah might a knowed it. Me, wit thirteen bones in mah kick, and tryin' to pick up a little coal. Why, man, Ah couldn't save a baby from drowning wit dat money in mah clothes without gettin' pinched."

Evils Resulting From Constipation

How This Trouble May Be Readily Corrected.

You are drowsy, heavy, despondent, lacking energy. It is hard to think, you have an oppressed feeling in your stomach and bowels, your body aches, in fact, life seems hardly worth living. Then ask yourself: "Do your bowels move regularly?" If your answer will be "No," this is the cause of your troubles. Not properly corrected, this condition will lead to more serious disorders of the blood and body, due to the poisonous waste matter which should be carried off. It seems so foolish to suffer when Nature has provided her own wholesome and infallible remedy in the pure Natural Laxative, HUNYADI JÁNOS Water, from the famous springs in Hungary. It is a wonderful of this wonderful water on arising will give you within an hour a delightfully great and copious movement.
